MAD presents plan we need to make America's kids science conscious. Now we need plan to make America's kids conscious.

An article about suburbs and how they're sprawling further and further from cities as more and more urbanites rush to sprawl.

A quick look at the new advertising method known as subliminal projection which we hope is nothing but a flash in the pan.

We'd be "Met" with this kind of thing if pocketbook cover copy-writers were to put their blurbs to work on Opera Albums.

COMMEMORATIVE STAMPS ..... 26

With new stamps coming out daily commemorating just about everything, we figure there'll soon be one for this article.

Bob and Ray's version of the television show that takes a Sunday afternoon across this vast land of ours, and quietly ruins it.

Here are some MAD games guaranteed to start any party rolling, once the cops come and pile you all into the Paddy Wagon.

SATURDAY EVENING PEST ......43

A satire of that famous American family-magazine offered by that infamous American black-sheep-ofthe-family-magazine, MAD.

LETTER PAGE

Every time I buy an issue of MAD, the first thing I turn to is the letter page. But the bomb in the mail box is still there. When is it going off?

Dennis Gormley Hialcah, Fla.

ECH-H-H-H-H!

The Reader

You guys should leave an empty space in the Letters Department for readers like me who never get their letters printed. Then we can write them in ourselves.

Bob DeMello Brooklyn, N. Y.

COVER

The cover painted by J. Fred Muggs was a masterpiece. I hope you continue with your growing line of triumphs.

Mike Conners Beach Haven, N. J.

At last your cover paintings begin to make sense!

> Jon Hartzell So. Pasadena, Calif.

Idiots! You printed it upside-down! Steve Ellerbroek Richmond, Va.

Extraordinary! Please show us some more work by this talented genius.

Nat Weber Brooklyn, N. Y.

Extraordinary?

I think that the chimpanzee that painted your March cover should draw the rest of the magazine!

> Kenny Cohen Highland Park, Ill.

OWNERSHIP

I've been reading and laughing at your mag for quite a while now. But in the last issue, the article entitled "Statement of Ownership" was the funniest thing I've ever read.

Johnny Schmon Clifton, N. J.

For Unprinted Letters?

POSITIVELY THE LAST OFFER!

Yes, this is positively the last offer we will make this issue. It's also positively the first offer we'll make this issue. In fact, it's the only offer we'll make this issue. Next issue, we'll make it again. WHAT ME WORRY? kid pictures in full-color, suitable for framing or gift wrapping fish, are still available. Send 25¢ to: Dept. #### "MAD" CAMP

Each summer at camp we conduct a celebrity poll. For the second successive year, MAD has been voted the most popular magazine at camp.

I. A. Rosenthal Camp Orinsekwa Niverville, N. Y.

BABY SITTING

Who goofed? The best story you ever had in all your issues was "Goldie Moll and D' Tree Bulls," and you had to go and cut it off without finishing it!

Bob Wade Belvidere, N. J.

The article about racketeers taking over baby sitting jobs was unnecessary. The way you talk, you'd think the country was run by hoodlums and gangsters. The Boys

INVENTOR

I think that your biography of Arthur A. Freen was the funniest and best-written story in the magazine.

Gene Tortora Elmhurst, N. Y.

Golly! Gee! I didn't know it was Arthur A. Freen who invented the wrench!

Everett Spencer Hingham, Mass.

Invented Wrench?

Yeah! Well, you guys just wait till next year!

MEMO RANDOMS DEPT.

In the interests of scientific research, in the interests of getting high-class articles for MAD, and mainly in the interests of earning extra money, we took a part-time job cleaning up some big New York office buildings after hours. While scrounging through wastepaper baskets, we came up with a fascinating collection of unconscious scribblings which (with the aid of a 25¢ book on psychology) enabled us to present this revealing analysis of some famous people's . . .

ROBERT F. WAGNER

Even in his unconscious moments, the Mayor is constantly concerned with the problems of his city, as this detailed sketch of New York's complicated highway system clearly indicates.

EDWARD R. MURROW

We would have loved to analyze the doodles of so worldly and distinguished a man as Edward R. Murrow, but unfortunately some clod burned a hole in our sample with his fool cigarette.

JOE E. LEWIS

These fine renderings of animals, resembling elephants, bats, snakes and stuff like that, show that Mr. Lewis has a vivid and fertile imagination, and definitely loves wild life.

RICHARD M. NIXON

These drawings, resembling bent and broken golf clubs, apparently indicate Mr. Nixon's strong, frustrated desire to excel, or go a step further in some field, possibly sports.

SCRATCHPAD DOODLES

EXRAJO ROB VB SJWARJS

ED SULLIVAN

There is no doubt that these broken glasses represent a violent desire of Mr. Sullivan's. After careful consideration of Ed's life and career, we've decided that, actually, he really wanted to be an Optometrist.

This celebrity's over-emphasis and pre-occupation with crime and death symbols clearly shows his main love: curling up with a good mystery book.

PABLO PICASSO

Artistically, these sketches could be a manifestation of Mr. Picasso's belief that all forms should be reduced to the utmost of simplicity, or else they could simply mean that the old boy's finally flipped his lid.

ALFRED E. NEUMAN

This is really a collector's item for anyone crazy enough to want to save doodles. Here is an example of a doodle of a person who not only doesn't worry, he hasn't even got one little unconscious thought!

upholstered cliff dwellings and moving out to little ranch houses in the suburbs.

STORY AND PICTURES BY DAVID BERG

And it's also true that, eventually, the city will be nothing more than a deserted ghost town each night after the business district has emptied out and closed down.

However, there will come a time when the suburbs will spread so far from the city, they'll finally merge with the suburbs of the neighboring city. The suburbanites will then be utterly baffled as to just which city they're actually suburban to.

The distance one commutes will be the yardstick by which a man's importance will be measured. We'll see ads like:

Business men will spend more hours commuting than working.

People will move so far out, they'll commute by train... to the airport...where they'll catch the commuter plane.

Getting to work late won't be measured in hours, but days.

And so, eventually, to meet this problem head-on, factories and offices, too, will be forced to abandon the cities and move to new locations far out in the suburbs.

So, like we said, the suburbs are on their way out! The cities will come alive again. Only difference will be that ex-suburbanites will have gotten used to one way of life... the ranch house. City apartment houses of the future will consist of ranch houses piled one on top of the other, with a mortgage separating each.

THE BALCONY SCENE FROM ROMEO AND JULIET ACT II SCENE II

THE OLD VERSION

JULIET: O Romeo, Romeo! wherefore art thou Romeo? Deny thy father and refuse thy name; Or, if thou wilt not, be but sworn my love, And I'll no longer be a Capulet.

ROMEO: (ASIDE) Shall I hear more, or shall I speak at this?

JULIET: 'Tis but thy name that is my enemy; Thou art thyself, though not a Montague. What's a Montague? it is not hand, nor foot, Nor arm, nor face, nor any other part Belonging to a man. O, be some other name! What's in a name? that which we call a rose By any other name would smell as sweet; So Romeo would, were he not Romeo call'd, Retain that dear perfection which he owes Without that title. Romeo, doff thy name, And for thy name, which is no part of thee,

Take all myself. ROMEO: I take thee at thy word.

Call me but love, and I'll be new baptized; Henceforth, I never will be Romeo.

JULIET: What man art thou, that, thus bescreen'd in night

So stumblest on my counsel?

ROMEO: By a name

I know not how to tell thee who I am; My name, dear saint, is hateful to myself, Because it is an enemy to thee;

Had I it written, I would tear the word. JULIET: My ears have yet not drunk a hundred words Of thy tongue's uttering, yet I know the sound;

Art thou not Romeo, and a Montague?

ROMEO: Neither, fair maid, if either thee dislike. JULIET: How camest thou hither, tell me? and wherefore?

The orchard walls are high and hard to climb; And the place death, considering who thou art,

If any of my kinsmen find thee here.

ROMEO: With love's light wings Did I o'er-perch these walls,

For stony limits cannot hold love out: And what love can do, that dares love attempt; Therefore thy kinsmen are no let to me.

JULIET: If they do see thee, they will murder thee. ROMEO: Alack! there lies more peril in thine eye

Than twenty of their swords; look thou but sweet, And I am proof against their enmity.

JULIET: I would not for the world they saw thee here. ROMEO: I have night's cloak to hide me from their eyes;

And but thou love me, let them find me here; My life were better ended by their hate, Than death prorogued, wanting of thy love.

JULIET: By whose direction found'st thou out this place? ROMEO: By love, that first did prompt me to inquire;

He lent me counsel, and I lent him eyes. I am no pilot; yet, wert thou as far As that vast shore wash'd with the farthest sea, I would adventure for such merchandise.

THE MAD VERSION

JULIET: O, Romeo, Romeo! Where'd you hook this Romeo? Put down your old man and lose that label; Or, if you won't buy the bit, tell me I'm your chick, And I'll, like, cut out from this Capulet scene.

ROMEO: (OFFBEAT) Shall I dig more, or shall I come on now?

JULIET: It's only your tag that hangs me up; You're you, pops, even tho you pad with the Montagues. What's this Montague ribble? It's no hand, foot, Goatee, hot lips, or any other stuff

Belonging to a hipster, Man! Latch on to another tag! What's in a tag? that which we call a horn

By any other sound would blow as cool; So old Romeo, if they didn't pin him Romeo, Would still be the end, and come on hip: Romeo, stash that tag which doesn't swing,

And, like, start to make it With me instead, hear? I get the message, lover.

ROMEO: Call me your boy, and I'll blow a new sound; Tomorrow, I ditch this Romeo jazz.

Who are you, man, that comes from left-field

To horn in on my solo?

By a label I know not how to clue you in; My label, baby doll, is unhip to me, Because it bugs you the most;

Had I inked it, I would snag the bit. JULIET: My lobes have not yet dug a hundred notes

Of your jive, but, like, I'm woke to your sound: Man, aren't you old Romeo, from the Montague combo?

POMEO-Neither, chick, if you don't groove their group. How'd you make it here, hip me? and how come? Like, the walls are crazy big and wild to scale;

And the scene uncool for you, Daddy-O, If any of the brass catch your act.

ROMEO: I'm high on this love kick So, like, I flew over this ribble, For love can come on in any groove: 'Cause nothing stops its frantic beat: That's why your group don't bug me, hear?

If they spot you, Buster, they'll conk you out. ROMEO: Fan it! there's more action in your crazy red eyes Than twenty of their switch-blades; just look cool,

And I can buck their jazz. JULIET: I don't want those cats to dig you here.

ROMEO: I have night's drape to black me out; Just have eyes for me, and let them pull me in; My life were better busted by their noise, Then if I couldn't have a ball with you.

Who finked on how to find my shack? Love, baby, love first bugged me to plea; ROMEO: It put me wise, and I stayed with it. I'm only a sideman; but if your pad were Over in Jersey, I would make the scene for such crazy action.

Whether it's magazines, TV, billboards, or even MAD T-shirts, wherever we look these days there's an advertisement. Up to now, we've had the prerogative of reading these ads if we so desired. But now, Madison Avenue has come up with a new advertising technique... officially known as subliminal projection. We call it

HOW IT WORKS . . .

What happens is, you're sitting in a theater, watching this movie, when . . .

Suddenly, an advertisement is flashed on the screen for 1/3000 of a second.

This message is flashed so fast, you are not even consciously aware of it.

HOW IT CAN BE USED . . .

Think of the potential uses for this kind of sneaky advertising. Like for instance, in political campaigns . . .

Or like if the Movie Industry wanted to eliminate competition by dealing a death-blow to the Television Industry.

Unless the Television Industry wanted to render that possible use harmless by making sure few people ever see it.

ADVERTISEMENTS

But ... hoo-hah! Your unconscious mind is plenty aware! It read the message!

And now, you suddenly have an amazing craving to drink a bottle of "Coke"!

This is amazing mainly because all of your life you've always hated "Coke"!

Then there's always the use specialinterest groups could make of sneaky advertising on signs we must look at.

The Army could solve one of its big problems and keep the GI morale high by strategically placed suggestions.

And best of all, some sneaky ads here and there, and people could be influenced into reading good books again.

ACCIDENTAL INVENTIONS

Back in the days of primitive man, one wise joker decided to invent something entirely new . . . a door to his cave . . .

Trouble was, the cave entrance was round, and his "door" kept slipping away from him and rolling down the hill . . .

One clever fellow tried to invent a faster telegraph key.

This inventor built the first portable air-conditioner . . .

and discovered that he'd put the fan motor in backwards.

Two brothers had a revolutionary idea for a blanket-drier.

This genius decided he'd build the first television set . . .

A fellow worked for years on an electric envelope sealer.

One man thought he'd invent a machine that would relax tense muscles and help increase the circulation of blood.

When they tried it, the blankets were left high, not dry.

Only in the process, he accidentally got his rays crossed.

The first time he tested it out, another idea popped up.

Unfortunately, when he tried it out, he discovered he was all wet. And being all wet, he got the shock of his life.

PARTY GAME No. 1

INFERIORITY COMPLEX

Edwin, who is "it", arrives at 9:30 P.M. Rest of guests deliberately delay arrival till 10. Host, dripping wet from shower, greets Edwin. Edwin fears he got time wrong, apologizes for being early, and begins to feel inferior.

At 12 midnight, all the guests (except Edwin) suddenly bring out gayly-wrapped packages and start singing "Happy Birthday" to host. Edwin thinks he has committed social blunder by not bringing gift to birthday party, and is well on way to acquiring deep-seeded inferiority complex.

TEXT BY FRANK JACOBS

PICTURES BY WALLACE WOOD

The game of "Inferiority Complex" is planned before the party starts. The host phones each guest and says that they will be playing "Inferiority Complex" at the party and that, for example, Edwin, will be "it". This gives the guests ample time to think of things to say or do to Edwin which will make him feel inferior.

At 10, rest of guests arrive wearing sweatshirts and blue jeans. Edwin thinks he had been told to wear a tuxedo. It is now too late for him to change, so Edwin shrinks into corner, feeling very out of place and even more inferior.

Rest of evening is spent either by ignoring Edwin, or by making him the butt of practical jokes and snide remarks. Game officially ends at 1 A.M., when guests all look for Edwin to tell him it was all in fun. Edwin will be glad to hear this, unless he has taken it all too seriously...

Super Scavenger Hunt

If Edwin somehow survives playing "Inferiority Complex", he can gain his revenge by throwing his own party and organizing a "Super Scavenger Hunt".

Scavenger teams are required to follow the above "rules".

Scavenger teams are required to bring back these "items".

At 10 P.M., the 4 scavenger teams set out to get items. Team #1, attempting to obtain Baldwin piano, starts to break into Van Gelt mansion, but is stopped by Team #2.

Team #4 heads for zoo in local city park in order to get 7-year-old African lion, but is delayed by strategically placed landmines previously planted in paths by Team #3.

Undaunted, Team #4 breaks into local art museum for the original Rembrandt painting. Team #1, however, has lined art museum walls with dozens of fake Rembrandt paintings.

Meanwhile, Team #2 has broken into Acme Liquor store in search of 5 cases of 15-year-old Scotch but is slowed by foolishly sampling bottles previously poisoned by Team #4.

Meanwhile, back at the zoo, Team #3 frees wild animals and sets them loose on Team #1, now busily chopping down 50-foot marble pillar outside stately City Hall building.

Team #4, attempting to capture needed Russian spy, gets trapped in murderous crossfire between Russian spy ring and F.B.I. agents, who are actually Team #2 in disguise.

However, while guests were scavenging for items on list, Edwin was scavenging their homes for valuables. Set for life, he flees country, winning title of Super Scavenger. At midnight, the four teams, all claiming victory, return to Edwin's party. Amazing as it may seem, they have all managed to obtain every item on list except yellow yo-yo.

WHY CHANGED WHY JOB HELP WANTED ACCOUNTANT experienced, salary $100 per week, liberal employee benefits, congenial co-workers, convenient location, rapid advancement, must be able to assume responsibilities. Apply Mange &

By DEXTER YINCKLEY

I'm an accountant and a pretty good one, too. I'd held my old job for over two years, and I felt that I'd gone about as far as I could. So when I saw the above help wanted ad, I decided to apply for the job. I really felt good when they hired me. I knew that it was a change for the better because it offered everything I wanted. Like...

Crippitt, Co., 21 Frammis Street. (Agcy. fee paid)

PICTURES BY GEORGE WOODBRIDGE

Before I changed jobs, I earned a measly $70.00 a week. You can see my take-home pay was hardly enought to live on.

Weekly Pay: 70.00
Less:
Fed. Income Tax 12.00
Social Security 2.10
Take Home Pay 55.90

Like the ad promised, my new job pays $100 a week plus liberal employment benefits. That's quite an improvement.

At my old job, my co-workers were old, dull, and uninteresting. They never took their noses out of their ledgers.

Like the ad promised, my new co-workers are congenial. They're young and bright, with well-rounded personalities.

My old office was located in a very remote part of town Commuting was unpleasant, uncomfortable, and time-wasting.

At my old job, I was just a lowly junior accountant. I knew I would never be promoted to any executive position.

At my old job, I was never allowed to handle any of the important ledgers. For example, I was stuck in "Petty Cash" for over two years. You can well imagine how much I yearned to do something important, with responsibility.

Like the ad promised, my new office is conveniently located right in town. There's no time wasted getting there.

Like the ad promised, at my new job, there's rapid advancement. I've already been made an "Associate Executive."

Like the ad promised, my new job gives me responsibility. Only the boss and I have access to the important ledgers. And when the auditors check the books, the boss lets me take all the credit. Yes, sir, I know I'll go a long way!

DON MARTIN DEPT.

Here's another of Mr. Martin's STRANGE
TALES
He calls this one

The Window Trimmer

HOW NOW BOW-WOW DEPT.

It has been said that when two people live together, they eventually start to look alike. It follows, then, that when people live with dogs, they eventually start to look like their dogs. If this isn't clear to you (and there's no reason why it should be!), then take a look at these ...

The Bulldog's bark is full of growls; His face is full of scars and jowls; But do not fear his gruff exterior, 'Cause, actually, he feels inferior.

For arrogance and pure conceit, the snooty Chow cannot be beat, So let us firmly state right now That man's best friend is not the Chow!

Woe is me! Alack, alas! It

Must be tough to be a Basset—

Looking so depressed and dismal,

Like he needs some Pepto-Bismal.

The Sheepdog is beyond compare, He's one-half hound and one-half hair, He doesn't eat, it's sad to state, Because he cannot find the plate.

MAD DOGS AND THEIR OWNERS

PICTURES BY KELLY FREAS

Poodles live a life of ease

Without a single trace of fleas;
They sport the latest collar fashions

And only eat imported rations;

Manicured and well-perfumed,
They take great pains to be well-groomed;
Only some rich flashy dude'll
Satisfy the pampered Poodle.

I wish someone would tell us how a Man could want a pet Chihuahua— (Also called the Mexican Hairless) Though, honestly, we couldn't care less!

Like an orange that turns up juiceless, The Pekinese is just plain useless.

The Mongrel is a homeless hound Who's glad that he's a vagrant, You always know when he's around Because he is so fragrant.

THE LINE IS DIZZY DEPT.

Recently, several of our readers questioned the name COWZNOFSKI, claiming it was pure fabrication and didn't exist at all. We began to have a few doubts on the subject ourselves (since Melvin was away fishing at the time and we couldn't check), so we looked it up in the local telephone directory and, to our astonishment, we found . . .

Tugboat Annie Sinks

By DIETRICH DUNSTAN DRIZZLE

Could it be? After all her years at the helm, was Annie about to keel-haul her yardarm? Apex Selby sat in the lobby of the Umgumtumiaki Hotel overlooking the unpaved main street of Port Aakvikalotl, and glanced over the headlines of the Skagway Gazette.

"I've been an Alaskan ship owner for thirty-seven years, now heading a fleet of seven vessels, the largest of which, the 'Primrose', is ably captained by the only woman pilot on the tundra, Tugboat Annie," he mused, a thick thatch of white hair covering his otherwise bald head.

A heavy form sagged into the chair beside Apex, and the pungent aroma told him without looking up that it was Annie.

"Why ye shark-nosed swivel-eared scabbard-sluthering son-of-a-skinamaroo," said Annie amiably, hitting him in the mouth with a hairy fist.

I finally went out to the Martin home after waiting for several days while Pete humorously pretended he didn't want to see me.

I was fully prepared to be graciously received, but I never expected anything like the welcome I got.

I CALL ON PETE MARTIN

I had finally consented to interview Pete Martin, and a dozen random thoughts were swirling through my mind as my sleek new Ferrari-41 sport car rolled up the drive of his modest Connecticut home.

I remembered that I had been in Connecticut before, once to do my Pulitzer prize-winning series on Syngman Rhee, and once to buy some smoked head cheese at a Hartford grocery that specializes in such mouth-watering delicacies.

Now, wearing an expensive imported camel's hair sport coat and trim fawn-colored slacks, an ensemble that makes me appear much younger than I am, I

One Pest editor calls on another to gain an interview that only the Pest would dare print.

I asked Pete for a picture, and he gave me this one that he took in Yellowstone Park in 1951.

Pete reluctantly left his busy desk to show me the door after we had concluded our little chat.

Lieutenant Smith, more than a little impressed with his own military ability after finishing first in his class at O.C.S., was assigned to be an aide to an old-line cavalry officer named Colonel Brown.

The young lieutenant proceeded to change the colonel's entire office system, prefacing each new change with the admonition that 'this is the way we do it in the new army,

Perfect Squash

The wily old veteran maintained silence until one day when the lieutenant announced that he was going to consolidate the "Q" and 'R" material in the filing cabinet because there was so little filed under "Q.

'It may be confusing to you at first, sir,' the young lieutenant smiled condescendingly, but this is the way we do it in the new army!

The old colonel turned from the window with a wry expression on his face and said quietly:

'Ahhh, yer fadder's moustache!"

You Be The Jury

By LUTHER ZITZLAFF

Stevie was an ex-convict who found that his criminal record hampered his efforts to gain employment. After several weeks of job hunting, he was apparently on the verge of being hired by the J & J Necktie Shortener Co. But before the hiring could take place. Stevie's past prison record was brought to light and his application was rejected. In a fit of pique, Stevie shot and killed the J & J firm's Personnel Manager. He then proceeded to file suit against the State Parole Board.

I am a pathological criminal and the parole board knew it," he argued. "It isn't safe for me to be on the streets. If I'd been kept in prison where I belong, I wouldn't have gotten into further trouble, I demand that the state immediately put me back in stir."

"He done his time so we sprung him," replied the chairman of the parole board. "I mean, you know . . . wha' c'we do?" If you were the jury, would you rule that Stevie was entitled to go back to prison?

Stevie won his case. The jury ruled that since he was now a murderer, he was entitled to return to custody, regardless of the fact that he had completed his previous sentence. He lived happily at the State Penitentiary until he was given the electric chair four months later. Bated on a 1831 Utab Decision.

It is true that the missing die lay flat.

But it was not "easily readable" by all of the par-ticipants in the game.

Therefore, Pooch sat on Snake, while Trigger carved him up with a switch-blade knife.

CORRECT ANSWER searchean Luciente Language Control Con

Though camera-shy at seven, he overcame this trait and went on to win fame and fortune before the cameras of Hollywood. A topranking singer of popular music as well as an actor, his recent recording of "I've Got to Get Back to Iceland Right Away Quick" has sold over 9,000 copies, which is pretty darn good considering the fact that it was recorded at 95½ RPM's. His most recent accomplishment, aside from being learned in an article in Confidential, is an Academy Award nomination for his work in the motion picture "A Face in the Crud." Can you name him?

So You Think You Know Craps!

By DOMINIC 'PATSY' SCHMURGEN

Under Rule 5.28 of The International Code of Crap Shooting and Penny Pitching, it is clearly stated that "failure of one or both dice to land in a flat and easily readable position upon throwing shall result in a void or 'no-dice' situation." The application of this rule resulted in some confusion in an actual game situation which occurred early last season.

The Golden Dukes and the Market Street Marauders are having a friendly little game in the alley behind Dressendorfer's Pool Hall and Recreation Center. Snake Burnbaum is a $12.00 winner. Trigger Grslx is in for about eight clams. Itchy Twirp is down four bucks. And Poochy Duckgluck is approximately even.

Snake's point is eight, and he repeatedly shouts "Eighter from Decatur" as he prepares to roll. Trigger fades him for two skins, and Pooch takes a piece of that. Itchy is interested in a girl across the alley preparing for bed, and is not participating.

the alley preparing for bed, and is not participating.

On the first roll, one die lands upward in a six position. The other rolls into an open manhole. Snake retrieves the die, an onounces that it was a two, and that he's made his point. Trigger and Pooch invoke Rule 5.28, arguing that the dice were not "easily readable." Snake replies that he found the missing die lying flat and easily readable in the sewer. So saying, he picks up all bets and pockets them.

If you had been Pooch or Trigger, what would you have done?

Alfred E. Neuman Threatens To Replace Baseball

*******

After his many years before the cameras, it would seem that Basil Rathbone could have no new firsts to add to his career. * * *

But Producer C. C. Seecamp has met the challenge in the new M-J-M release, "The Thing that Landed in Pittsburgh." * *

* "Rathbone's name has been associated with so many great pictures for so many years," says Seecamp, "we decided it would be a real switcheroo to put him in a bad one."

No one who caught the recent sneak preview could deny that "The Thing that Landed in Pittsburgh" is a real bomb. +

Rathbone, calling on a new facet of his many sided talent, is cast in the role of a slapstick night club comic.

* * He sings seven new hit songs, all badly. * * *

Ed Sullivan, who dropped in on the set during production, later told his T.V. audience, "This superb job of absolute mis-casting is a tribute to M-J-M's modern thinking."

As in so many great dramas, the plot of the picture itself is a simple one.

And how!

****************

It's the story of the everyday trials and tribulations of an itinerant belly-dancer, a pyromaniac steam-fitter, a discouraged oboist, and a happy-go-lucky werewolf.

* Just simple everyday folks any of us might know-and love.

Ivan Sternwash wrote the screenplay based on a story by Y. Y. Dunphy stolen from a book by Edgar Allen Poe.

For an incredibly long, dull evening that will make you wish you had stayed home and played a game of three-handed whist, we heartily recommend "The Thing that Landed in Pittsburgh!"

Life Among the Authors

Eugene Ogg, whose new serial, "WHEATIES, THE BREAKFAST OF CHAMPIONS" begins on page 34, sends along this candid photo of himself at work in his study.

My wife snapped this from the mouth of our cave with a baby Brownie," Ogg writes. "The baby Brownie is a distant relative on my father's side whom we are raising as our own."

Winston Backrack ("WIIY THE COM-MUNISTS THINK WE'RE ICKY" in the April 29th Pest) drops us a whimsical note from the big ranch near Woonsocket, R. L., where he and his wife raise albino emus.

I was shocked to see my article in the Pest," Backrack pens in a fine even hand. "I say it's my article because you lifted the piece word-for-word from 'The American Police Dog' of July, 1954, in direct violation of U.S. Copyright laws.

Backrack fans will be happy to know that his latest article, "I SUED THE PEST AND WON," is now in preparation and will appear shortly.

Author Dr. Irving Belknap (STOP PAMPERING YOUR CHILDREN in the May 9th Pest) reports an amazing response to his article. "Three Boy Scout Troops have sworn a vendetta against me," the noted educator writes from an undisclosed hiding place, "and Mickey Mouse Clubs from as far away as Anchorage, Alaska, and the Canal Zone have been sending me cookies containing untraceable poisons."

NEXT WEEK'S PEST

"I always Die in the Stretch"

Are America's biggest racing classics being fixed by the horses themselves? Sea Breeze, a threeyear-old who has finished out of the money consistently at Aqueduct, gives the horse-laugh to railbirds in this startling exposé.
